History of The Pines Christian Care Centre

After starting Ambassadors International Ministries, Inc., David and Sally Seefried found that a mining company named Harmony Gold had a large base of operations just outside the city of Welkom, South Africa. Due to the decreasing production of the mines in that area, Harmony Gold had vacated its headquarters buildings in the late 1990's. The buildings were vacated and donated to AIMI to serve as an orphanage known now as The Pines Christian Care Centre for Children.

The Pines itself consists of one main building, and several outbuildings. Through fund raising efforts like that of Run For The Pines, The Pines estimates that all of the facilities on the property and future construction projects should be able to house between 200-300 children.

The following is the current layout of the facility:

Main building

- Living quarters for the missionaries/staff
- Offices
- Recreational area for the children
- Church meetings
- Flats for the children (6 children & 1 housemother per flat)
- Living quarters for teams/individuals who come to visit

The Pines currently has 24 children, all housed within the main, "L"-shaped building

Mission of The Pines Christian Care Centre

The primary mission of The Pines Christian Care Centre is direct care of children who have been orphaned due to the AIDS pandemic. We work closely with a South African government social worker to determine which children are able to come to The Pines. We will not be able to accept children outside of these means. If The Pines were open to anyone, we would quickly be overwhelmed with abandoned and orphaned children.

The goal is to raise children who come to know Jesus Christ as Savior at a young age, and approach life with strong biblical foundation that will allow them to live long healthy lives. In no way is the staff attempting to introduce American culture, but instead raise South African children who will be able to go out into their own community and make an impact for Christ.

We firmly believe that the only answer to the AIDS pandemic is a changed life through a salvation relationship with Jesus Christ. The task is daunting, but our God is powerful. At no time is He surprised by anything that happens, or lacking the power to solve any problem. By His grace we trust that The Pines will be an effective tool to spread the Gospel.
